GET STARTED ON A CAREER IN:

- Bylaw enforcement

These courses are for those individuals seeking employment in the bylaw enforcement or licensing fields and those individuals already working as bylaw enforcement officers, local government regulatory officers, or licensing officers.

The course was taught by people that have a great deal of field experience, and in many cases are currently working in the field. The instructors did a great job of relating the program's learning outcomes with great examples, role playing, and personal anecdotes from their experience."

EVAN DEAN, Bylaw graduate

PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION

REQUIREMENTS

Bylaw Compliance
Enforcement and Investigative Skills 1 & 2

These courses are blended learning. Each is the equivalent of a six-day course offered over a six-week period. For both, the first six weeks of instruction occur online followed by a one-week break, before three days of face-to-face learning in a classroom setting.

The courses are open to anyone. There are no formal requirements for admission.

The best part of the course was learning about conflict resolution. Specifically, learning about different conflict styles and how important this information is when dealing with citizens as a bylaw officer.

COURTNEY DYE, Bylaw student

LAW ENFORCEMENT, INVESTIGATION & SECURITY

Be the one keeping communities safe.

Receive hands-on learning with a focus on investigative and enforcement skills from experienced instructors to work in this expanding field.

The Justice & Public Safety Division offers academic education and customized training programs in law enforcement studies, investigation and enforcement skills, and security training for individuals serving in public, private and non-profit organizations.

The Academy also offers advanced courses for experienced police officers. Candidates must first be employed by one of BC's police departments in order to be eligible for enrolment.

CORRECTIONS & COURT SERVICES

Corrections & Court Services Division provides the education and training for staff and professionals who serve essential roles in the justice system in BC and across Canada.

- Corrections Academy: In partnership with the Corrections Branch of the BC Ministry of Justice, JIBC trains all Adult Correctional Officers and Adult Probation Officers in BC, who supervise sentenced and remanded adult offenders in correctional centres throughout the province.
- Sheriff Academy: JIBC develops and delivers training for BC Sheriff Services. Through the Institute's Threat Management Centre of Excellence, JIBC offers specialized training, both online and face-to-face, in high-security trial management, protective intelligence, and risk and threat assessment for individuals and organizations.

DRIVER SAFETY TRAINING

The JIBC Driver Education Centre offers advanced driver training courses that help save lives and prevent injuries. Its courses are offered to organizations with driver fleets as well as first responder agencies operating emergency vehicles.

OFFICE OF INDIGENIZATION

The Office of Indigenization works on multiple collaborative efforts to support students, faculty and staff while building and enhancing relationships with Indigenous people, organizations and communities. JIBC supports the Indigenous community by contributing to the development of JIBC governance, structure, policy and procedures to establish Indigenous spaces throughout our campuses.

We also promote innovations in Indigenous programming and services while supporting funding initiatives that ensure the implementation of the JIBC Indigenous Plan. Our Indigenous staff can discuss funding, the application process, or courses at JIBC that may be of interest to you as an Indigenous student.

The Justice Institute of British Columbia serves the people of communities located in the traditional territories of First Nations Peoples across British Columbia. We welcome First Nations, Inuit, and Métis learners who seek knowledge and skills from our programs.

SERVICES FOR INDIGENOUS STUDENTS

STUDENT SERVICES & FINANCIAL AID

STUDENT AWARDS, BURSARIES & SCHOLARSHIPS

With the support of donors to The JIBC Foundation, the financial aid office is able to award generous bursaries and scholarships to students. Awards are available to students studying in certificate, diploma, degree and graduate certificate programs. Some programs at JIBC are also eligible for financial assistance through the BC student Loan program. Visit jibc.ca/financialaid or contact financialaid@jibc.ca.

The JIBC Foundation also supports student learning through generous donor support from the community for new technology, equipment and programs. For more information visit jibc.ca/foundation.

STUDENT SERVICES

The Manager of Student Learning Supports and Disability Resources provides confidential support to prospective and current students in all JIBC programs in the areas of disability access, writing and learning strategies, and student wellness. The manager oversees supports to students with disabilities, the writing centre, campus and student wellness and crisis response. Students can meet with the manager to discuss study skills, time management, academic writing skills, general strategies for academic success, stress management strategies, mental health and addictions supports, grief and loss, suicide, trauma, interpersonal communication strategies, crisis intervention, short-term counselling and referral to appropriate community resources for long-term mental health intervention and support. The manager is available Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. at studentresources@jibc.ca and 604-528-5884 or 1-877-275-4331. The student learning supports and disability services office is located at the New Westminster campus, in room CL201.

LIBRARY

The JIBC Library offers research assistance and access to a unique and specialized collection of books, DVDs, journals and online sources such as journal and newspaper articles, eBooks, streaming media, case law and legislation. JIBC librarians are available to help locate information on subjects taught at JIBC and to assist students with a variety of academic and research skills, such as searching for the most current journal articles or citing sources correctly. Computers are available for student use in the Library and all have Microsoft Office and Internet access. Laptops and iPads are available to certificate, diploma and degree program students for short-term loan.
